

they have been appropriately considered and rewarded through a three-level downward adjustment for acceptance of responsibility. Bryant's remaining arguments will be addressed at sentencing.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The parties are notified that my tentative findings are that the Revised PSR is correct in all respects;

2. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

3. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 2 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final;

4. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing; and

5. The Defendant's motion for downward departure (Filing No. 64) will be heard at sentencing.
