v.	:	Magistrate Judge Michael J. Newman
 JUAN CANO,	 :
Defendant.	:

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION¹

This case came on for hearing on Friday, April 12, 2013. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Andrew Hunt; Defendant was represented by Attorney Steven Rueckert; and Marina Camacho, a Spanish language interpreter, was also present. Defendant consented on the record that he understood the Spanish language interpreter, and had no language concerns. The case was referred to the undersigned under Fed. R. Crim. P. 59 for plea proceedings. Defendant, through counsel, orally consented to proceed before the United State Magistrate Judge for this hearing.

The undersigned examined Defendant under oath as to his understanding of the Plea Agreement and the effect of entering a plea pursuant to that Agreement. Having conducted that colloquy, the Magistrate Judge is persuaded that Defendant understands the rights waived by entering a guilty plea and is competent to do so. The Magistrate Judge also concludes that execution of the Plea Agreement, which was acknowledged in open court, is Defendant's knowing, intelligent and voluntary act. It is therefore respectfully recommended that the Plea Agreement be accepted.

The Magistrate Judge concludes that Defendant's guilty plea to Count One of the First Superseding Indictment dated September 25, 2012 is knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that the Statement of Facts made a part of the Plea Agreement, whose truth Defendant acknowledged, provides a sufficient factual basis for a guilty finding. It is therefore respectfully recommended that Defendant's guilty plea be accepted, and Defendant be found guilty as charged in Count One of the First Superseding Indictment.

Anticipating the District Court's adoption of this Report and Recommendation, the Magistrate Judge referred Defendant for a pre-sentence investigation, remanded him to the custody of the United States Marshal, and set sentencing for July 18, 2013, at 2:30 p.m. in Courtroom 2 of the Dayton Federal Courthouse before United States District Judge Thomas M. Rose.
