In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

 - (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.
 - (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the information from the hearing and in the indictment and the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant presents a danger to the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 34 year old United States citizen who was raised in Belize and moved to the United States in 2001. He lives with his wife, who is citizen of Belize, and daughter, who is a U.S. citizen, in Houston since October 2007. He has a U.S. passport and travels to Belize to visit his parents.
2. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States.
3. Defendant does not have substantial financial ties to this community. He began working for his current employer on November 3, 2008, doing remodeling work. He continues to have strong family ties to Belize.
4. Defendant is charged with conspiracy and possession with intent to distribute cocaine in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841, 846. He faces a potential penalty of 5-40 years in prison.
5. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
