AN ACT

For the relief of Sumiko Yamamoto.

Sumiko Yamamoto.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That provisions of the immigration laws excluding from the United States aliens inadmissible because of race shall not apply to Sumiko Yamamoto, Japanese fiancée of Renaldo A. Barbaro, of Newark, New Jersey, a United States citizen serving in the United States Armed Forces. The said Sumiko Yamamoto shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months if the appropriate administrative authorities find that she is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of marrying the said Renaldo A. Barbaro and that she is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. If such marriage does not occur within three months after her entry, the said Sumiko Yamamoto shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported under sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (8 U. S. C., secs. 155 and 156). If such marriage does occur within such period, the Attorney General shall record the lawful admission of the said Sumiko Yamamoto to the United States for permanent residence, as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee and head tax.

Approved July 16, 1952.
