

Quality Control for Published Products

GPO offers Quality Control for Published Products (QCPP) to agency customers nationwide to assist in making the most economical decisions and achieve the highest quality level for each print job.

QCPP staff is available for:

- Consulting at any point during planning or job production
- Reviewing specifications and preflight files to avoid questions or additional costs once the contractor receives the job
- Assisting in selecting appropriate types of proofs and reviewing them for compliance to contract requirements
- Achieving the quality that you expect from commercial contractors through GPO onsite inspections
- Evaluating the finished product to ensure the best quality per your product requirements
