PONZI SCHEME PUBLICATION AVAILABLE AT GPO

WASHINGTON—The U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO) has made available Ponzimonium: How Scam Artists are Ripping Off America at the agency's retail and online bookstore. Published by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), Ponzimonium tells the story of Ponzi scheme cases and educates readers on how to identify and avoid becoming entangled in an investment fraud. The arrest of Ponzi scheme operator Bernard Madoff in 2008 raised the issue to national attention and led to an increase in Ponzi scheme investigations by the CFTC. Ponzimonium focuses on Ponzi scheme cases from 2009 and identifies ways the public can recognize a Ponzi scheme.

GPO's bookstore is located at: 710 North Capitol Street, NW in Washington, D.C.

With 2,200 employees, GPO is the Federal Government's primary resource for producing, procuring, cataloging, indexing, authenticating, disseminating, and preserving the official information products of the U.S. Government in digital and tangible forms. GPO is responsible for the production and distribution of information products and services for all three branches of the Federal Government, including U.S. passports for the Department of State as well as the official publications--in both electronic and print formats--of Congress, the White House, and other Federal agencies. In addition to publication sales, GPO provides for permanent public access to Federal Government information at no charge through GPO's Federal Digital System (www.fdsys.gov) and through partnerships with approximately 1,220 libraries nationwide participating in the Federal Depository Library Program.
